University of Saskatchewan bursaries are awarded to graduate students based on financial need. This funding should not be considered a source of long-term funding for a graduate student's program. Students who currently hold $7,500 or more in financial assistance from any source (scholarship, employment, stipend, government support, family support, etc.) over the indicated twelve-month period are not eligible to receive this funding.

Indicate the bursary for which you are applying. You may apply for more than one bursary using this form.

Ivan & Margaret Toutloff Bursary Muriel J. Clancy Bursary

Applicants for the Muriel J. Clancy Bursary must attach a letter (no more than 1,000 words) showing how they are planning to work with children who are disabled, as either a teacher, physiotherapist, speech therapist, doctor, or nurse.

Complete all sections of this application. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
