

College of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies

Room 116 Thorvaldson Building, 110 Science Place, Saskatoon SK CANADA S7N 5C9 Telephone (306)966-5751, Fax: (306)966-5756, General E-mail: grad.studies@usask.ca

Current U of S policy states that all courses must include a final examination worth more than 30% of the final grade. The College of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies must approve all exceptions to this policy.

Basic information about the EXISTING course:

- 1. Department/Unit: College of:
2.

(Authorizing Unit Head - PLEASE PRINT)

(Authorizing Unit Head - SIGNATURE)

- 3. Label, number, and title of course:
4. Please provide a brief statement which explains why an exemption of final examination or a final examination worth less than 30% is appropriate for this course:
5. Please indicate all methods of evaluating students and percentages assigned to each method (i.e. assignments, laboratory work, mid-term examination, essays, papers, presentations, projects, etc.):
6. Date of Implementation:

This course will conform to the academic requirements and standards for graduate courses, including the rules of Student Appeals in Academic Matters (see www.usask.ca/university_secretary/council/reports_forms/reports/12-06-99.php) and Academic Integrity and Student Conduct (see www.usask.ca/university_secretary/honesty/).

Date of Approval by Undergraduate College (of the home academic unit):

(Authorizing College Signature (of the home academic unit))

(Name of Person Signing - PLEASE PRINT)