Jwaen (June, Michif)

Tansi Cousins,

I hope you are all having a wonderful summer, whether you are in the field, writing your thesis, or just taking a well-deserved break!

Happy Pride and Happy Indigenous People month!

Congratulations to all our graduates walking across the stage this week.

Campus is fairly quiet this time of year, but we will have a worksho at the end of July.

Summer Scholars Circle

The Trish Monture Centre Summer Scholars Circles is a space for Indigenous undergraduate student researchers and their allies to create a supportive learning network.

These workshops are also open to Indigenous graduate students. If you are interested in attending, please email aurora.wolfe@usask.ca to confirm registration.

For Visiting Cousins, we are looking for mentors to answer questions about grad school and research. Register here.

Honouring Lived & Learned Knowledges

When: June 10, 11AM - 12PM

Explore ways to honour and engage traditional, cultural, land-based, and/or lived knowledges in academic and research settings.

Visiting with COUSINS

When: June 24, 11AM - 12PM

Share stories, laughter, and advice with your COUSINS in the College of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies!

Tea with Aunties & Uncles

When: July 7, 11AM - 12PM

When your family asks, "So...what is it you're studying, again?", do you know what to say? Join guest 'Aunties and Uncles' to practice talking about your research in ways that connect beyond the lab and lecture theatre.

Closing Circle & Mini Medicine Walk

When: August 6, 11AM - 12PM

Reflect on your experience and set goals to continue your learning beyond your summer experience.
