

College of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies Pandemic Need-Based Bursary Application

Student information

Student name	Student number	Email address
--------------	----------------	---------------

The College of Graduate & Postdoctoral Studies Pandemic Need-Based Bursary is a continuation of our efforts to support students through Covid-19. This support is available to graduate students who are not fully funded* and whose graduate program has been impacted by the pandemic. The maximum value that a student will receive is $2,500. The bursary is non-renewable.

*Fully funded is defined as more than $15,000/year. Tri-Agency award recipients or student being paid from multiple sources (including university employment income) whose total income exceeds $15,000 are not eligible to apply.

Please list all revenues and expenses no matter the source.
